Red Cross Notes

A supply of wool for socks and sweaters has arrived.

The third literary afternoon, under the auspices of the Arts and Crafts Club, will be held today, from 2:30 to 5, at Arts and Crafts Hall. Mrs. Yard will read John Francis Dwyer's "Land of the Pilgrims' Pride" and John Masefield's "The Sweep of Ninety-eight." Tea will be served. The hostesses are: Mrs. A. McDow, Miss E. Harrington, Miss Kate Miles, Mrs. Ross.

Gifts to men going from Carmel to the camps or to the front cannot be made from the chapter supplies, but must come from individuals. All material purchased by the chapter from the supply depot must be returned as knit articles.

If you read it in the Pine Cone you may safely repeat it.

Pine Needles

All the present city officials will be candidates for reelection at the municipal election on the 8th of next month. Most of the nominating petitions will be filed within the week.

Mrs. M. J. Thomas has returned to Berkeley. She was here for a brief visit with the Newhalls, who occupied her cottage.

J. Redfern Mason, for several years music critic of the Examiner, is reported to have resigned the position.

What will probably be an easy grade to the top of Carmel Hill is now being planned. The proposed roadway begins near the Monterey High School and runs across lots over the Jacks property to a connection with the hill highway.

A bright new flag floats proudly from the staff in front of the Carmel City Hall. "Oh say can you see."

The class in psychology, under the direction of Dr. H. H. Bawden, will meet tomorrow evening at the Genthe cottage.

Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Winslow came down from Oakland last week for a brief stay at their beautiful Highlands home.

More than 150 men are now employed in the forests at the Big Sur section, in taking out ties and split lumber. Fifteen motor trucks are to be purchased to carry the material to Monterey.

Prof. W. L. Cannon, who has been away several months, is here again, for a short stay.

As the citizens of Carmel-by-the-Sea desire authoritative, definite statements from the various candidates or group of candidates for Trustee, as to their stand on matters of municipal administration and improvements, the Pine Cone has extended the use of its columns.

Just a month from tonight—Saturday, April 6—the Prize Maquerade Ball of the Mananita Club, for the benefit of the Red Cross, takes place. It is the first big after-Lent social affair.

March 9 is the last day upon which citizens may register for the Carmel-by-the-Sea city election, which takes place on Monday, April 8.

This month's "Literary Afternoon," under the auspices of the Arts and Crafts Club, for the benefit of the Red Cross, will take place today at 2:30. Mrs. Sydney Yard will provide a fine patriotic programme.

Instead of early in April, as has heretofore been the law, elections for school trustee will be held on the last Friday in March.

Miss Helen Parkes has been appointed as official representative in Carmel of the Armenian and Syrian Relief Committee.

The processes of the draft being too slow for him, Milton Horn enlisted in the engineers early this week, and is now at Angel Island.

Mrs. M. H. Jaquith, whose home is now in Watsonville, is visiting here this week.

La Playa News Notes Interesting happenings

Miss O'Sullivan, who has been the guest of Mrs. Plunkett for a week, is returning to Piedmont.

Miss Birdseye is now a guest at Hotel Darby, Los Angeles. She is missed by La Playa guests, our musical evenings being given up for the present.

Miss Wilson, who is head of a large hospital in Oakland, is here for a much needed rest. Miss Hall, her associate, ran down for the week-end.

Mrs. V. Mott Porter has received word that her brother's play, "Why Marry?" is to be photographed for the training of companies which are to go on the road.

We must band together to exterminate poison oak. Can the taxpayers at this critical time afford to drive out the tourist, who can find elsewhere many of our attractions with less discomfort?

A leading banker of Boston, writing to Mrs. Signor, says: "What do you mean by 'City?' We want peaceful, delightful, restful, beautiful Carmel, with a few shovelfuls of gravel from your Ocean Avenue to the front entrance of La Playa. Cities are many—there is but one Carmel."

Recent arrivals:

Oakland—Mary I. Hall.
Palo Alto—Mr and Mrs Walter Hays.
Boston—Mr and Mrs Richard B. Carter.
Minneapolis—Mrs Paul W. Smith.
Rockford, Ill.—Mrs Edward S. Gregory, Miss Frances L. Potter.

The Audubon Society will resume its meetings next Tuesday by gathering at the home of Mrs. G. F. Beardsley. Take your knitting; 3 p.m.

The election for two members of the Sanitary Board and of a Sanitary District Assessor takes place next Monday. The officers of election are: Miss M. N. Clark, A. J. Comstock, and J. L. Williams.

County Assessor Gould has appointed B. E. Cahoon as his field deputy in Carmel, Jamesburg, Sur and Seaside.

Several patriotic little Carmel misses who wish to do their bit toward helping the Red Cross plan to present a dramatic version of "Snow White and Rose Red" next Thursday evening. The affair will take place at the Watts home.

Next Sunday evening, March 10, Rev. S. C. Thomas will speak on Winston Churchill's recent book, "The Dwelling Place of Light," which touches upon the labor question.

The Socialist Meeting

At Manzanita Hall, on Monday evening, George R. Kirkpatrick, Socialist speaker, spoke for two hours to a small but intensely interested audience.

Kirkpatrick is different from the usual type of Socialist orators, in that his talk is free from rancor and venom. He placed particular stress upon what he terms "socializing the productive industries." His observations of prevailing conditions was truly stated and the remedy prescribed, but the application of the remedy is as vague and far off as the millennium.

Albuquerque, N. M.—Members of the New Mexico Cattle and Horse Growers' association have appealed to the secretary of agriculture for immediate expenditure of $100,000 of federal funds in the state, in an effort to combat the ravages upon stock by predatory animals.

Estimated based upon the tax rolls place the number of head of live stock destroyed by mountain lions, wolves and coyotes as follows, during the last year: Cattle, 24,350, valued at $1,374,000; sheep, 165,000, $1,330,000; horses, 850, $21,250.

It is conservatively estimated that 16,000,000 pounds of edible meat is destroyed annually by wild animals.

NO AGE LIMIT FOR WOMEN IN WAR WORK

There is no age limit for the service of women in war work. This fact has been demonstrated to the woman's committee of the council of national defense. Of the thousands of letters that have come in recently from all parts of the country, begging for some work which will be of real worth to the government, one was from an elderly lady ninety-six years of age, and one from a little girl nine years old. The old lady writes that she would like to have some definite war work to do, since her son is too old to be a soldier. The little girl wants to go to France as a messenger in the Red Cross service. In France, at the beginning of the war, the age limit for governmental service was placed at forty years. All the women in France are now working for their country.

City Trustees Meet

The Carmel Board of Trustees, with G. F. Beardsley in the chair, held its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday. A call for the municipal election, on Monday, April 8, was adopted.

First reading was given two new ordinances, on relating to salary of city officials, and the other, defining the duties of the City Clerk.

The meeting adjourned until tonight, when routine business will be taken up.

WEEKLY GREETING

Our national life and our whole economic development will come under the sinister influences of foreign control if we do not win. We must win, therefore, and we shall win. I need not ask you to pledge your lives and fortunes in the accomplishment of this great end. —Speech of President Wilson.

A Pooling of Interests

The share of the common people in the government is determined to considerable extent by their financial ability. By this we do not mean to imply that a person without financial means has not a share and a voice in the government.

The point to be made clear is that if one has a monetary interest in any enterprise he is more inclined to take an intelligent interest, to be more loyal, more reasonable.

Millions of our people are owners of Thrift Stamps, and thousands possess Liberty Bonds. They are shareholders in the government, who will want to keep posted and to have a say as to how the money they are lending their government is to be spent.

Frequently we hear predictions as to governmental and economic changes to come after the war; undoubtedly these changes will come. In the United States the transition will come gradually and after mature reflection. Our multitude of government shareholders will tolerate no drastic nor hasty action.

And this shareholder policy, after all, is the real beginning of beneficent socialism.

Thirty-six States, by a two-thirds vote of their Legislatures, are required to enact the prohibition constitutional amendment. Let California be one of them. Force every candidate for the Legislature this year to publicly declare his position on this vital moral and economic question.

Rehearsals are under way for a splendid presentation of Augustin Daly's four-act comedy, "A Night Off," at Arts and Crafts Hall, some time next month.

TWO BITS

A Day Clubs

Out in Phoenix, Arizona, a movement has been inaugurated for the formation of Two Bits a Day clubs, the members of which are to buy a quarter's worth of Thrift Stamps every day. Three men each took a hundred Thrift cards, pasted one stamp on each card, and sold the entire lot before two blocks had been covered.

"Two bits" is the old term, dating back to the early days of the country, for a quarter of a dollar, and is still used in the South and West. Every patriotic American now wants to "do his bit." The members of these clubs are carrying out the idea finely in doing their "two bits" every day. It is hoped that "Two Bits a Day" clubs will be formed all over the country in the great war savings campaign.

Hayes Again

(Pacific Grove Review)

Editorial comment was made in yesterday's Review concerning Congressman Hayes' letter saying that he would be a candidate for re-election this year. The letter we did not and would not print, but the Salinas Journal did, and added the following comment:

"Mr. Hayes' explanation of why he did not vote in the affirmative on the declaration of war with Germany is anything but satisfactory. We all know war is 'awful.' General Sherman describes it even better—but we do not want representatives from this district who sidestep an issue because it is 'awful.' Without doubt there will be many 'awful' questions appearing before Congress before the war is over, and we want a representative who will meet them in a red-blooded American manner, with no wishy-washy sidestepping. President Wilson has to have the undivided support of every man in Congress, not one who will blow hot and cold."
